Awards Deadline: May 4, 2025

Organization Categories

Outstanding Community Empowerment Grant Community:

This award is for the program that has shown exceptional progress in establishing a new downtown revitalization organization. The organization should exhibit strong leadership activities with progress in each of the four points of the Main Street Approach™. Examples should be given to show evidence that the organization is working with the city and other public partners to accomplish downtown goals as well as developing a strategy for organizational sustainability. Community must have been an active Community Empowerment Grant community in 2023, 2024, or 2025.

Best New Awareness Campaign:

Recognition of excellence in a targeted campaign that educates the community about a stream-lined effort to raise awareness on a particular aspect of a Main Street activity i.e. Farmers Market, community pride, beautification, Main Street advocacy, economic development, historic preservation, volunteer development, an annual report, fundraising effort, etc. The narrative for the nomination should list the objectives of the campaign, if the objectives were reached, the impact on the community, and how the program will be maintained and improved in the future.

Spirit of Main Street:

This award goes to an individual from the community that has demonstrated continued support to the downtown revitalization program and showcased great work in the downtown. This individual must demonstrate why the effort was impactful and has gone above and beyond to further revitalization efforts.

Premier Partner:

Recognition of creative joint ventures between the Main Street organization and another local, community entity or entities (public or private). Ventures can be community events, programs, or publications.

Special Submission Requirements for Organization Categories

- * Nominations for the Outstanding Community Empowerment Grant Community may submit nominable activities that have taken place between January 1, 2023 to May 4, 2025.
- * Nominations in the Outstanding Community Empowerment Grant Community, Best New Awareness Campaign, and Premier Partner may submit up to eight (8) pages of collateral material to support the nomination.
- * Nominations for Best New Awareness Campaign must be accompanied by a detailed action or work plan.
- * Nominations for the Spirit of Main Street award must include at least one (1) head shot style photo of the individual being nominated along with three-four (3-4) candid photos of your nominee. These photos will be shown during the Evening of Excellence Awards Dinner.

Awards Deadline: May 4, 2025

Economic Vitality Categories

Outstanding Economic Impact Project:

Award granted to an individual, business, municipality, or a partnership of entities that has undertaken a new development project within a downtown district. This project does not have to be “brick and mortar,” but should improve quality of life and have a positive, measurable impact on downtown revitalization, including job creation and/or business expansion.

Best Downtown Housing Project:

This award recognizes the importance of people living downtown. Nominations can be for upper-story lofts or multi-unit apartments, new or renovated single-family housing, or other creative ways to add housing to the downtown area.

Main Street Business Recruitment Award:

Submissions in this category should highlight how the Main Street program assisted efforts to recruit new business to the Main Street district. Projects could include (but are not limited to): business recruitment focused incentives, creation of pop-up shop programs or business incubator spaces, business recruitment

Promotion Category

Creative New Promotion:

This award recognizes the downtown organization that has produced a quality creative promotion generating traffic for the downtown. The activity could be a Main Street-hosted event or other creative promotional activity.

Awards Deadline: May 4, 2025

Design Categories

Small Scale Placemaking Activity:

Submissions should highlight individual small scale physical projects that have helped strengthen the sense of place and demonstrated impact in engaging people with the Main Street district. Projects could include (but are not limited to): murals, public art, small gathering spaces, temporary placemaking efforts/tactical urbanism, innovative lighting, small scale beautification projects, deliberate activation efforts of an existing space, etc.

Comprehensive Placemaking Effort:

Submissions should highlight large scale (or a coordinated collection of smaller scale) physical projects that have helped strengthen the sense of place and demonstrated impact in engaging people with the Main Street district. Projects could include (but are not limited to): streetscape projects, large scale beautification projects, plaza/park projects, multiple coordinated public art projects, major trail connections, etc.

Best Façade Rehabilitation:

Recognition of a building façade project that restored the original elements of the building and stabilized the structure for current use. Describe the project's impact on the building, business, and historic district overall.

Best Historic Preservation Project:

Recognition of a preservation project, either physical or educational, that utilized the preservation ethic at the center of Main Street. Physical preservation projects should highlight how the Secretary of Interior Standards were used in the project to ensure preservation of the building. Educational preservation projects should highlight how the preservation ethic was shared with the local audience to further the preservation goals of the Main Street organization. In the nomination for both types of projects, explain how your project has impacted the downtown district.

Special Submission Requirements for Design Categories

- * Nominations in the Design categories must include “before and after” photos. If the nomination for Best Historic Preservation Project is educational in nature, before and after photos are not required.
